

NORTHERN ARAPAHO TRIBAL INDUSTRIES

Northern Arapaho Tribal Industries (NATI) is a for-profit company wholly owned by the Northern Arapaho Indian Tribe. Organized in 2002, NATI is a technical support company. The company provides services in web site design and hosting, multimedia presentations, video production, video conferencing and personal application development (Scanning and digitization). NATI sells computer solutions for home based businesses, small businesses and large companies.

The firm is currently 8(a) certified and will be applying for HubZONE certification in the near future. Specializing in web site design and maintenance, NATI has the resources and expertise to take on a variety of projects of any size and difficulty, from document conversion to training.